SR-TEK company memo regarding CT Series 0.5L part number 500ML-CT

As of 25th of June 2021, the 0.5L acrylic and stainless-steel pressure vessel from the CT Series has been discontinued due to the challenges of sourcing the specified acrylic tube and lack of sales on this particular model.

This change, does not affect the 500ML-CTG toughened glass version, which remains available.
